PRESIDENT WILL NOT TAKE STUMP FOR NOMINATION

Wilson Will Attend to the Nation's Business as His Managers Campaign.

START MADE ALREADY TO SECURE REELECTION dive to the fact that the having an important bear-intimation of the President's friends believe the eign will be his success in ersy. They believe a care-of the difficulties with Great ifficulties with Great in the period way and through the Park, blushed as the conversed with him in their rapid pleasure ride up tiverside Drive, Broadway and through the Park, blushed as the Empire Theatre last any speaking tours they pleasure ride up fliverside Drive, Broadway and through the Park, blushed as he led her into the Empire Theatre last night, blushed but whe gradue of the property of the prop the war, will probably See Popular Approval.

WILSON AND MRS. GALT GREETED BY THRONGS TRAIN, GET $500,000

public excitement and interest.

Bride-elect Mways Composed.

become as other men, other very young men, a blushing, rather self-conscious, happy and exceedingly proud suitor. It may be that in all these United States there is only one person who, arm in arm with the woman who has his heart, cannot have privacy, must always be upon exhibition, followed by crowds, be upon exhibition, followed by crowds, be upon exhibition, followed by crowds, pursued by comment, ostenatiously guarded by the police, and that that person is the President of the United States. Certainly that appeared to be the fact yesterday afternoon and last night. The affectionate progress of Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Galt through the public streets was no more private than would have been the parade of a circus. No more attention could have been athorized had their car worne a placard. managers already have made tracted had their car worne a placard filled eight more cars, caught a place od start on his campaign for reelectreading, say:
"Stop. Look, Listen! In this car is were away like a shot, dust rolling the President and the woman he is in Lorns honking, people cheering. love with

It wasn't the President's fault, apthough nothing could have been more unlike his customary way of doing things. It was merely because he was the President and the fact that he was coming to New York with his fiancee had been well advertised. Undoubtedly they were aware, even in their absorption
were aware, even in their absorption
were aware, even in their absorption were aware, in their absorption were aware, even in their absorption
of the narty into the hotel and to the been well advertised. Undoubtedly they were aware, even in their absorption with each other, of the hurly burly of of the party into the hotel and to the apartments reserved on the twelfth floor for Mrs. Galt, her mother and Miss In a few minutes the men were his head. down again and on their way to Col. House's apartments at 115 East Fifty-In the late afternoon as their can was third street. Ten minutes sufficed Mr. Wilson to remove the stains of travel and at the end of that time he was boards which fairly screamed announcements of coming plays they saw a highly colored placard advertising the coming of Franz Lehar's newest piece.

ALONE AT LAST.

It seemed to those who were speeding and bumping behind the President's car that Mr. Wilson turned to the lady and Service Officer Jee Murphy riding with It seemed to those who were speeding and bumping behind the President's car that Mr. Wilson turned to the lady and the lady to Mr. Wilson with cuick appreciation of the humor so uncoasciously written upon the billboard. In Washington and at Cornish it had been possible for Woodrow Wilson to stroll in shady lanes with the lady of his heart or to find suitable opportunities for pleasant tete-a-tetes where there were no prying hungry eyes with curiosity to measure their glances of affection and strain ears for their gentle conversation. In New York? What could be more impossible? so they thought as the car speed in the adjustable seats and Dr. Gray-sending the adjustable seats and Secret that Mr. Wilson turned to the adjustable seats and Secret service officer Joe Murphy riding with a secret service chauffeur. The weather had grown cold as evening came on and at Cornish it had been possible for Woodrow Wilson to stroll in shady lanes with the lady of his heart or to find suitable opportunities for pleasant tete-a-tetes where there were no prying hungry eyes with curiosity to measure their glances of affection and strain. In New York? What could be more impossible? so they thought as the car speed in the adjustable seats and Secret endeating with a secret service chauffeur. The weather had grown cold as evening came on and at Cornish it had been possible for Woodrow Wilson to stroll in shady lanes with the lady of his heart or to find suitable opportunities for pleasant tete-a-tetes where there were no prying had grown cold as evening came on and at Cornish it had been possible for Woodrow Wilson to stroll in shady as eached. "I don't When reports of the robbery to the want to sit here debute want to sit here debute want to sit here leisure. When reports of the robbery want to sit here leisure. When reports of the robbery of the relievance of the robbery and took up the trail of the mail car at their leisure. When reports of the robbery of the trail of the mail car at their leisure. When reports of the robbery of t from the Pennsylvania Station to their

After leaving Mrs. Gait. Mrs. Bolling and Miss Bones at the St. Regis. the President drove with Col. House to Col. House's apartments to dress for dinner. At a little before 7, the President in evening clothes and wearing an linverness youthfully draped over his long tailed coat, called for Mrs. Gait and wide open. He shoved in ahead of him article written. escorted her to Col. House's. There the the engineer and fireman and calmly copy of which was given dinner the President and Mrs. Galt. Mr. "An older man then turned to me and the engineer to all present, the engineer to all present.

where the control terms of the control of the contr tered Mail Stolen-$2,000,-000 in Gold Overlooked.

o'clock for St. Louis was held up about day afternoon. 2 o'clock this morning near Central. Summed up Mr. Morgan's declarational to 5 per cent. bonds, rail w. Va., by two masked men.

time that anything had happened, and train crew left with the stalled cars did not realize that there had been a robbery. They started out in search of the bonds will be at a premium.

Representatives of every bond house the passengers did not realize that there had been a robbery. They started out in search of the bonds will be at a premium.

Representatives of every bond house at a premium. the missing engine and soon met the fireman running back to give the alarm. The engineer, Grant Helms, heard the men climb over the coal and turned to see an automatic shotgan levelled at his head. The other robber was similarly arred and both wore masks. With Helms and the fireman covered, one of the nen ordered Heims to stop and then him cut off the engine and mail cars. Free of the train, the robber stood by Helms and told him to run. They greeted the head of the banking had passed through times just as threat.

Then the engineer and fireman were ordered to the ground and one of the robbers took the throttle and ran the engine about two miles further on, where they rifled the mail car at their leisure.

When the engineer and fireman were considered to the man the present war. Thomas W. Lamont, Jr., accompanied than the present war. Thereafter the meeting adjourned into modestly took a chair when the speaker's stand was reached. "I don't men seemed to think they would sell the want to six here alone." Said Mr. More railroad and county detectives were at once sent to the scene of the robbery and took up the trail of the nen Posses ears for their genile conversation. In New York? What could be more impossible? so they thought as the car specition to problems of State to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

The problems of State to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

The problems of state to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

The problems of state to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

The problems of state to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

The problems of state to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

The problems of state to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

The problems of state to go affeld for the promostand fortunes.

They were wholly absorbed with each this strongest card in the first and not give a good description of the first as "safety."

They were wholly absorbed with each the first had been drawn and the first as "safety."

They were wholly absorbed with each the first had been drawn and the first as "safety."

They were wholly absorbed with each the first had been drawn and the first as "safety."

They were wholly absorbed with each the first had been drawn and the first had been drawn and the first had been drawn and the prevent an explosion if steam got up while it was unattended.

The were wholly absorbed with each the first had been drawn and the first had been drawn and the first had been drawn and the prevent an explosion if steam got up while it was unattended.

The were wholly absorbed with each the first had been drawn and the first had been drawn and the first had been drawn and the new situation. The busy of this loan," he said at the outset, the flown.

They were wholly absorbed with each them they had at one time been railroad than they had at one time they h to the line of turning cars. Mr. Wilson looked, laughed and directed Mrs. Galt's attention. The run back to the hotel was made rapidly, with the jeddest sun 12:30 P. M. to-day several hours late. might. blushed—but why catalogue a lover's blushes, even though the lover some of the President's in to seek protective measures he dumping of foreign made.

American markets, and especial not the demands of points.

May catalogue a lover's blushes, even though the lover be president of the United States? Cer. the Jersey hills when the cars left Rivertially it was a new (perhaps some hight say a more human) Woodrow the park.

May catalogue a lover's blushes, even though the lover be president of the United States? Cer. the Jersey hills when the cars left Rivertially it was a new (perhaps some hight say a more human) Woodrow the park.

May to the safety this load is an incomplete than that, nothing plainer to every sensible person.

The robbers were either railroad men.

Society Meeting.

Everybody having a part in the negotiation of the $500,000,000 loan to England and France was denounced by Jeremiah A. O'Leary, president of the

BANDITS STOP N. Y. J. P. MORGAN INSTRUCTS 700 HOW TO SELL BONDS

Unsigned Currency and Regis- Says $500,000,000 Issue Is Neither Pro-Ally Nor Anti-German, but Pro-American—Salesmen All Eager and Confident of Success.

figure, for the American public is ac

"Abroad they are accustomed to take

The bonds were listed on the Stock was of $10,000 worth at 98, the selling price. The sale was made by Herzfeld & Stern and the purchaser was Mabon

It was announced by banks in Wall Street that loans will be made on the bonds at a very slight discount from the WARNING FROM BERLIN.

German Paper Says Fatherland Will Remember Loan. Special Cable Despatch to THE St

BERLIN, via Amsterdam, Oct. 8 .- The ual capacities subscribed to the Anglo French loan that "their misdeeds will

Roosevelt's Name Hissed at Peace

Society Meeting.

HOLDUP IN WEST VIRGINIA

Nearly 700 bond salesmen connected with the big houses of New York and the metropolitan district heard J. P.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 8.—A Balti Morgan explain the selling points of the district of the selling points more and Ohio express train which left $500,000,000 issue to Great Britain and will return nearly 512 per cent. It was New York yesterday morning at 10 France at the Waldorf-Astoria yester- necessary to put the tions were that the issue is neither pro- these a little more attractive. After securing, it is said, ninety packages of unsigned bank notes, totalling can; that it will be impossible for the ages the robbers escaped through the hills in the direction of the Ohlo River.

They overlocked $2.000.000 in gold to They overlocked $2,000,000 in gold in great nation can be extinguished; that run from fifteen to twenty-five years. America has now a chance to enter into bonds which return 212 to 3 per bonds which return 212 to 3 per bonds which return 213 to 3 per bonds which return 214 to 3 per bonds which return 215 The passengers did not know for some world finance, and further that within interest."

of importance in the city, with men from

They greeted the head of the banking had passed through times just as threatening. The cost of the Napoleonic wars stood by Helms and told him to run down the track about two miles.

Then the engineer and fireman were the track about two miles.

Then the engineer and fireman were the track about two miles.

Then the engineer and fireman were the track about two miles.

Then the engineer and fireman were the track about two miles.

The property of the banking had passed through times just as threat-house which is the agent of the syndicing. The cost of the Napoleonic wars was proportionally greater to England.

The property of the banking had passed through times just as threat-house which is the agent of the syndicing.

The property of the pro Mor- receipts, or the temporary certificates, Mr. without trouble.

"It is a syndicate price, probably 21 or 20 their amusing suggestions. It was not until the turn for home was made at 260th street that the President and Mrs.

CLERKS TELL OF HOLDUP. clair seemed aware of the procession of automobiles which had kept pace with them. Col. House called their attention washington.

Think Bandits Boarded Train in the world, England and France. They have been buying in this country and selling here, but at the present they are buying more than they are selling. We must give them time. We must learn We DENOUNCED BY O'LEARY. give credit to our foreign customers, just as a bank gives credit, if we would keep their trade, if we would become a Dinacr at Col. House's.

After leaving Mrs. Gait, Mrs. Bolling and Miss Bones at the St. Regis, the resident drove with Col. House to Col. ous 's apartments to dress for dinner.

The robbers were either railroad men or persons who in some manner became very familiar with the interior of mail cars," said Phillips.

"I opened the door in response to a bove everything else. It is absolutely above everything else. It is absolutely imperative for countries to man above everything else. is a flist charge on them; it is to be paid street and Boston road, last night, imperative for countries to us absolutely characterized the movement. response to a above everything else. It is absolutely imperative for countries to meet external obligations, if nothing else, if they are like its above the worst form of bankruptcy call the nash and Mrs. Galt. Mr. Galt. Mr. Galt. Mr. Gordon W. Auchineloss, son-in-then a sharp loud voice said: "Where's daugater of the host; Mrs. W. the big packages." I told him I didn't galt. Mrs. Helen Woodrow Bones, the big packages." I told him I didn't galt. He general recourses the enormous resources of England and The andience of 1,500, a frame, the taxable property, the income and the general recourses. Col. Roosevelt's name was "Why, I would be absurd," he said, Everybody rose and hissed. The was particularly pleasing to they're here and I'm going to get 'em." these bonds; it would be absurd to talk every Den e said.

"He then came upon the registered of the resources of the countries.

State, asking him to make a publicackages containing the money. Tearing "No Government investment since the statement of his views on the war loar

In organization of the discovery of the formal particles of the post of the po the precaution to provide for the insur-ance of such shipments.

In the case of Gustav K. W. Triest, son of Wolfgang G. Triest of New York, who is held by the British Government on the charge of being a German spy.

Franklin Simon & Co. Fifth Avenue, New York

Men's Furnishing Shop

16 West 38th St. SEPARATE SHOP A Step from Fifth Acenu:

Men's Scarfs

Newest weaves and color effects of Imported and Domestic silks, made expressly for Franklin Simon & Co.

1.00

Men's Shoe Shop

4 West 38th St. SEPARATE SHOP

Men's "Banister" 7.00 Shoes

EX-ARMY ATTACHE HURT.

Victim of Broadway Accident. Oliver Dubois Russell, 78 years old

Oliver Dubois Russell, 78 years old General on Governor's Island and re-brother-in-law of Gen. Winfield Scott three years ago. Hancock, was painfully injured yester-Broadway when he was knocked into nd a severe shock and was removed o Polyclinic Hospital. There the bound when thrown into the excava-the injuries and shock might prove serious owing to the patient's age.

Mr. Russell, whose home for the past twenty years has been at 205 West Fifty-first street, was born in St. Louis, his father having been a partner in the firm of Russell & Bennett, a grocery firm. His sister married Gen, Han-retary to the Assistant Quartermaster-

CREW OF U. S. SCHOONER SAVED

Reach Kingston After Storm. Special Cable Despatch to Tue Sex

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Oct. 8.—The cap-Mr. Russell was resting easily last American schooner Tofa, wrecken on night, but the fear was expressed that Little Cayman island, northwest of

B. Altman & Co.

Commencing MONDAY, October 11.

will hold the great Autumn Sale of

Selected Oriental RUGS AND CARPETS

Thepriceswillbeextraordinarilylow

B. Altman & Co.

have prepared an attractive selection of

TRIMMED HATS

in styles especially becoming to the younger set.

These Hats are reasonably priced, and will be found to impart an added touch of fashion to the smart costume.

(Millinery Showrooms, Third Floor)

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS .

in the newest designs and fabrics.

The young man desiring a well-fitting. well-tailored Suit for Autumn wear. will find in the selections now on display, in the Second Floor Department. a number of attractive styles that will bear favorable comparison with custommade clothes.

Prices $22.00, $25.00, $28.00

Men's Silk Neckwear

The Men's Furnishing Department is making an unusual display of Men's Silk Neckwear for the Autumn and Winter seasons.

The assortment is exceptionally large and represents everything that is new and most desirable in scarf fashions.

A special feature is Scarfs made in workrooms in the establishment, from rich silks imported direct by B. Altman & Co. and reserved exclusively for them.

Ittil Avenue - Madison Avenue 34th and 35th Streets New York